Your School Day with Digital Hall Pass

Learn how Pikmykid's automated digital hall pass system can simplify managing students out of class and increase efficiency in your school.

MISS HONEY

Miss Honey arrives at school & begins to review her day. She's able to look ahead and pre-schedule any hall passes for the day.

LUCY

High School Junior

Lucy is late to school. She uses the Kiosk in the front office to sign herself in for the day.

Lucy leaves the front office & travels to her first class.

Lucy uses the classroom Kiosk & checks herself in. Her arrival is recorded & timestamped.

Miss Honey is able to continue teaching her class without any classroom disruptions.

Lucy's arrival will be reflected in the school's live updates feed.

MAX

Third Grade with IEP

Max has diabetes & requires daily check-ins with the school nurse. Miss Honey is able to use Pikmykid to pre-schedule his 10 AM digital hall pass.

Miss Honey gets a notification reminder for Max to go to the nurse at 10 AM.

Max travels to the nurse & the dashboard automatically reflects an active hall pass.

The nurse receives a notification that Max's hall pass is active.

Max checks himself in at the school nurse.

The nurse makes Max a new hall pass & Miss Honey receives a notification that Max's hall pass is active.

Max arrives to class & checks himself in.

Miss Honey is notified that Max's hall pass is completed. His arrival is recorded & timestamped and will be reflected in the school's live feed.

Miss Honey is able to pull a report of all students & their timestamped passes at the end of the school day.

VIVIAN

Sixth Grade Student

Vivian is in fourth period English & needs to use the restroom.

Miss Honey has a Kiosk set up in the classroom. Vivian has the ability to create & complete her own hall pass.

Vivian uses the Kiosk to search & select her name – destination & time allotted have been pre-configured. She creates a pass & signs herself out.

Vivian leaves to use the restroom & Miss Honey continues to teach.

Vivian travels back to the classroom & signs herself in using the Kiosk. Miss Honey receives a notification that the hall pass has been completed.

Vivian's completed hall pass is timestamped & recorded. It is reflected in the school's live updates feed & on the hall pass dashboard.

Transform your school day into a streamlined experience with better communication and accountability for staff, teachers, and students with Pikmykid's Digital Hall Pass solution.
